THE PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Politics is the single largest systemic tool we have at our disposal with which we can love our neighbor. Simply put, politics for the Christian should be institutional neighborliness.

THE SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION

All are invited to participate in Holy Communion.

Please come forward using the center aisle. Receive a piece of bread and a cup of juice and take them with you as you return to your pew by the side aisles. After everyone has been served, the celebrant will direct the congregation to eat the bread and drink the cup together. Should you need to have the bread and cup brought to you, a deacon will be glad to serve you in your pew. If you are in the balcony, come down at any time you wish using the center aisle.

OUR VISION

We believe God calls us into Christian community with the challenge to discern and act upon the ongoing revelation of God in our time and place.

We live out this vision by being a church rooted deeply in liturgical traditions, where intergenerational friendships are valued, all members can be known by name, open-mindedness is the basis of spiritual formation, resources are shared generously, and where hands-on service is crucial to our own discipleship and the mission of Christ in the world.

We celebrate this vision through the intimacy of a loving congregation, the strength of Baptist freedoms, and the reach of an ecumenical and inclusive spirit.
