Touching Taliaferro with Love will be held June 18-21, 2018.

Thank you

Thank you to the members and staff of NDBC for the many ways you expressed Christian caring and love to our family during Gordon's hospital stays and final memory care destination. We were so appreciative of your presence at his memorial service and the beautiful reception that followed. Our non-NDBC relatives and friends who attended the service and reception commented on the hospitality given to them. Gordon was always very proud and happy to tell people he was a member of NDBC and to explain the programs and opportunities for service our church offers. He looked forward to participating in the Taliaferro County week in the summer and in the Habitat builds. Thank you for continuing to care us.

Sincerely

Billie, Michael, Tad, and Griffin Davis

Let the Children Sing and Rejoice!

Last Sunday was a joyful and musical day featuring two anthems led by children's choirs. Early in the service, guest artists from Woodward Academy Fourth Grade Choristers joined with members of the NDBC Celestial Choir (grades 1-3) and Berean Choir (grades 4-6) to present an arrangement of the spiritual, Little David, Play on your Harp. The anthem was arranged by Georgia composer, Lynn Shaw Bailey. Later in the service, the Woodward Academy Fourth Grade Choristers offered the anthem, Alleluia! Praise Him, with music Baroque composer, George Frideric Handel and text by Carolyn Swallow. They were joined by Dr. Vladimir Yampolsky on violin. I want to thank the families of the NDBC and Woodward Academy children for being with us in worship on Sunday. Thank you Bo, Van, Mary Frances, Jolene, Sebastian, Noah, Calleigh, Kaylee, Lanier, Leena, Madison, Makayla, Marlie, Navya, and Reese for your beautiful music-making. We all appreciate Aunt Jane Lamkin for helping with robing the NDBC choirs; Robbye Taylor for hosting the visiting parents; Jeff McConnaughey for accompanying the choirs; Brian Knight for setting up the microphones; Barbara Atchley and Nancy Davis for hosting our young singers and providing refreshments; our church school teachers for bringing the children to the sanctuary for rehearsal; and Keith Walker for making space in the service for two children's anthems.

Dear Northside Drive Baptist Congregation,

We are so grateful for the generosity and love you have shown for our family upon the death of my mother, Irene Harris. From those who traveled to the funeral at Mars Hill, NC, to those who sent flowers, to the many who called and emailed and texted, to all of you who sent card after card, expressing sympathy and prayers...we are awash with your love. As is the way with grief, we are sad about her death; but also, joyfully grateful for her life. With God's love and your encouragement, we are sustained and thankful.

The Adult Education Committee is planning a 2018 Summer Series called “Fumbling Towards Faith.”

The series approaches catechesis (basic Christian instruction for believers) as less of a question about “what” we believe and more a question of “why” we believe. In short, “why does it matter that we believe these tenets of faith at all?” For each doctrinal topic, our presenters are invited to talk about the questions which keep them up at night. Topics include authority, sin, salvation, the human condition, ecclesiology, baptism, and communion.

Be looking for more details in the very near future.

These sessions will be held at 9:30 AM in the Fellowship Hall.

Baptist History and Heritage Society

May 31-June 1

Smoke Rise Baptist Church, Stone Mountain

The Baptist History and Heritage Society will hold its annual conference at Smoke Rise Baptist Church in Stone Mountain, Georgia, May 31 - June 1, 2018. The theme this year is "Baptist Women in the Twentieth Century: Missionaries, Mission Leaders, Churchwomen, Civil Rights Activists, and Ministers." Among the featured presenters are Molly T. Marshall, Melody Maxwell, Walter B. Shurden, Sr., Mandy McMichael, and Ossie X. McKinney. In addition, the Society will honor E. Glenn Hinson with a festschrift issue of our Journal, and there will be more than twenty paper presentations and panel discussions on a variety of topics. The conference registration fee includes all programming, an awards dinner on Thursday evening, a Friday luncheon, dessert reception and refreshment breaks, program book, and name tag.
